

SUMMER SCHOOL: LESSONS FROM JESUS

The Faith of the Canaanite Woman

August 30/31, 2020

ETERNAL LOVE LUTHERAN CHURCH

a member congregation of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS)

FOR OUR GUESTS

Thank you for being here. During your visit today, you will see and hear what we're all about: God's eternal love for us through his Son, Jesus Christ! Any directions for speaking or singing, standing, or sitting will be indicated in this folder or projected on the wall in front of you.

- Restrooms are available just outside the chapel doors down the hallway to the left.
- If you have young children with you today, great! We encourage families to worship together. We do have a nursery area available just outside the chapel near the bathrooms, should you feel the need to step out of worship with your child for a moment.

CURRENT WORSHIP SERIES: SUMMER SCHOOL – Lessons from Jesus

We join the disciples in the classroom of Jesus' ministry. We observe him teaching in the real world as he performs miracles and teaches us life lessons and eternal life lessons. Following the Gospel each week, we will focus on learning important truths and attitudes of faith as we continue to navigate through this pandemic and wrap up the summer.

Today's Focus: At first glance Jesus seems to be reluctant to help a woman in need. Do we ever feel that way about Jesus? But look closer. He not only helps her, but spurs on her great faith. This woman, someone who would've been seen by many as an outsider to the faith, Jesus affirms as a person in the the household of faith. Today we learn from Jesus that he came for all and he invites us to have faith like the Canaanite woman.

PREPARING FOR WORSHIP

There still is room! His house is not yet filled; not all the guests are there. Oh, bring them in! Their hunger shall be stilled with bread, yes, bread to spare. Go, call them from the lanes and byways, from winding roads and crowded highways. There still is room! There still is room! (Christian Worship Hymn 565:1)

PSALM 30

M: Sing to the Lord, you saints of his;

C: praise his holy name.

M: For his anger lasts only a moment,

C: but his favor lasts a lifetime;

M: weeping may remain for a night,

C: but rejoicing comes in the morning.

M: To you, O Lord, I called;

C: to the Lord I cried for mercy.

M: You turned my wailing into dancing,

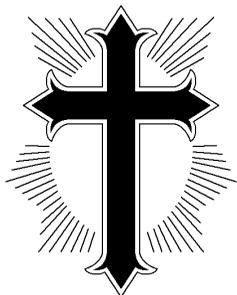

C: that my heart may sing to you and not be silent.

M: Glory be to the Father and to the Son

C: And to the Holy Spirit,

M: as it was in the beginning,

C: is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Praise Him

THE WORD

LESSON

Isaiah 56:1a,6-8

Through Isaiah, God told the world that God-fearing Gentiles would always have a place within his temple. God in his grace calls the Gentiles into his presence and makes his Church a house of prayer for all nations.

^{56:1} This is what the LORD says.

Protect justice, and carry out righteousness,

⁶Then the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him and to love the name of the LORD
and to become his servants,

every one of them who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it,
those who take hold of my covenant—

⁷I will bring them to my holy mountain, and I will make them glad in my house of prayer.

Their whole burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar.

For my house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples of the world.

⁸This is the declaration of God the LORD,
who gathers Israel's dispersed people:

"I will gather still more people to my house besides the ones already gathered."

 Your praise shall be for - ev - er sung!

²¹ Jesus left that place and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon. ²² There a Canaanite woman from that territory came and kept crying out, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! A demon is severely tormenting my daughter!”

²³ But he did not answer her a word.

His disciples came and pleaded, “Send her away, because she keeps crying out after us.”

²⁴ He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

²⁵ But she came and knelt in front of him, saying, “Lord, help me.”

²⁶ He answered her, “It is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to their little dogs.”

²⁷ “Yes, Lord,” she said, “yet their little dogs also eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

²⁸ Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, your faith is great! It will be done for you, just as you desire.” And her daughter was healed at that very hour.
